

COVID-19 STATE UPDATES

DATE	STATE	UPDATE
4/29-30	Alabama	April 30th: Hospitals and other healthcare organizations may begin performing procedures for non-emergency medical conditions once the state's stay-at-home order lifts. April 28th: Gov. Kay Ivey has not announced whether Alabama will extend its stay-at-home order past its April 30 expiration date. Until then restrictions expected to continue.
4/30	Alaska	April 28th: Gov. Mike Dunleavy issued an order, effective May 4th, allowing health care services that cannot be delayed beyond eight weeks without posing a significant risk to quality of life to may resume. Gov. Dunleavy allowed nonessential businesses to reopen for regular business hours, with varying restrictions by sector, on April 24. Many travel and fishing restrictions have also been lifted.
4/30	Arizona	April 28th: Gov. Doug Ducey's office has yet to decide on a reopening plan. He stated that an announcement will come this week. The state's stay-at-home order will expire on April 30. As of Monday May 1st, healthcare providers in the state can resume elective surgeries if they can show they have implemented certain measures, including having a more than 14-day supply of protective gear and ensuring adequate staffing and beds.
4/30	Arkansas	April 26th: Elective surgeries that don't require the emergency room can resume if patients don't exhibit COVID-19 symptoms, haven't had contact with infected persons, and must undergo a coronavirus test 48 hours before the surgery.
4/30	California	April 28th: An indefinite stay-at-home order is still in place, per Gov. Gavin Newsom. As of April 22nd, Gov. Gavin Newsom allowed hospitals to resume nonemergency surgeries and procedures, including tumor removal, heart valve replacements and important preventive care services such as colonoscopies.

4/30	Colorado	April 28th: The state’s stay-at-home order expired on April 27, moving to a new phase named by Gov. Jared Polis “Safer at Home.” In this phase, retail businesses can do curbside pickup, other businesses can reopen with medical precautions and elective surgeries may resume. Businesses such as salons, dog groomers, personal trainers and elective medical services will be allowed to open May 1. On May 4, offices may reopen with 50% capacity. As May 1st, healthcare providers can resume all voluntary or elective procedures, defined as those that can be delayed for a minimum of three months "without undue risk to the current or future health of the patient."
4/30	Connecticut	April 28th: Gov. Ned Lamont extended his state’s stay-at-home order until May 20. Some hospitals may resume elective outpatient procedures, provided they maintain adequate bed capacity for the COVID-19 response. Only hospitals in counties with fewer than 10 new hospitalizations of COVID-19 patients in 10 days will be allowed to resume these surgeries.
4/30	Delaware	April 28th: Not reopening yet. Gov. Ned Lamont extended his state’s stay-at-home order until May 20. Some hospitals may resume elective outpatient procedures, provided they maintain adequate bed capacity for the COVID-19 response. Only hospitals in counties with fewer than 10 new hospitalizations of COVID-19 patients in 10 days will be allowed to resume these surgeries.
4/30	Florida	April 30th - April 17th: Beaches and parks can be reopened by cities and counties subject to social distancing guidelines. As of Monday, May 4th and as part of phase 1, elective surgeries can resume except in Palm Beach, Miami-Dade and Broward counties. Restaurants can open with 25% capacity indoors, and outdoor seating with six feet of social distancing. Parties are restricted to 10 or fewer. Retail stores, museums, and libraries can open at 25% indoor capacity. Ordinance doesn't apply to Palm Beach, Miami-Dade and Broward counties.
4/30	Georgia

4/30	Hawaii	April 28th : Gov. David Ige extended the stay-at-home order until May 31. Elective surgeries are allowed to take place as long as there is enough capacity although that could change should the state see a surge or increase in need.
4/30	Idaho	April 28th : Gov. Brad Little announced his plan to reopen the state beginning on May 1 and proceeding with four steps through June 13. Effective April 21st , as part of a revised stay-at-home order, Gov. Eric J. Holcomb loosened restrictions on elective surgeries, stating that hospitals can conduct medically necessary procedures, including determining cancer diagnoses and cardiac issues, provided sufficient personal protective equipment, staff and other supplies are available for the COVID-19 response.
4/30	Illinois	April 28th : Gov. J.B. Pritzker announced Thursday he will extend the state's stay-at-home order until at least May 30. As of May 1st , hospitals and surgery centers will be allowed to resume certain elective surgeries for non-life-threatening conditions, provided they meet specific criteria, including proper personal protective equipment, ensuring enough overall space for COVID-19 patients remains available and testing of elective surgery patients to ensure they do not have COVID-19.
4/30	Indiana	April 28th - Gov. Mike Holcomb said elective surgeries resumed April 27 and he planned to lessen restrictions in early May. Currently, stay-at-home order is effective through o May 1 st .
4/30	Iowa	April 28th : the state has not had a stay-at-home order since April 20 and Gov. Kim Reynolds lifted the ban on nonessential surgeries beginning April 27.
4/30	Kansas	April 30th - April 26th : Elective surgeries that don't require the emergency room can resume if patients don't exhibit COVID-19 symptoms, haven't had contact with infected persons, and must undergo a coronavirus test 48 hours before the surgery. April 22nd : May open business within two weeks – details still pending

4/30	Kentucky	April 30th: Gov. Andy Beshear's stay-at-home order is currently indefinite. As of April 27th, healthcare clinics & medical offices, physical therapy settings, chiropractic offices, optometrists, and dental offices may reopen for non-urgent healthcare services.
4/30	Louisiana	April 28th: Gov. John Bel Edwards announced he will extend Louisiana's stay-at-home order until May 15. As of April 27th, the state eased restrictions on medical and surgical procedures. Previously, only surgeries for emergency medical conditions was allowed. Per a revised order from the state's department of health, healthcare organizations can perform procedures "to avoid further harms from an underlying condition or disease, and for time-sensitive conditions."
4/30	Maine	April 28th: Not reopening yet. Gov. Janet Mills extended the state of civil emergency to May 15 last week.
4/30	Maryland	April 28th: Gov. Larry Hogan's stay-at-home order is currently indefinite.
4/30	Massachusetts	April 28th: - Gov. Charlie Baker closed schools and day care businesses for the rest of the academic year but has yet to comment on the upcoming May 4 stay-at-home expiration date.
4/30	Michigan	April 28th: Gov. Gretchen Whitmer extended the state's stay-at-home order by two weeks on Wednesday, with a new end date of May 15, although the state eased some restrictions on stores and other activities. The Michigan Senate formally called on Gov. Gretchen Whitmer to ease up on bans against elective medical and dental procedures and allow additional businesses to open.
4/30	Minnesota	April 30th – April 27th: Non-critical industrial and office-based businesses that don't directly interact with customers can return to work if they can't work from home.
4/30	Mississippi	April 20th – allowed nonessential, including florists & clothing stores, to start delivery or curbside. Stay-at-home expired Monday, April 27th.

		April 27th – Retails stores can reopen and operate at 50% capacity while following CDC and health department guidelines
4/30	Missouri	April 28th: Gov. Mike Parson chose not to extend the state’s stay-at-home order, set to expire on May 4. On that day, all businesses may reopen following social distancing guidelines. The resumption of elective surgeries will focus on three important criteria: The suppression of the spread of the virus, Protection of patients and health care workers, Delivery of safe care.
4/30	Montana	April 27th: “Main Street” and retail businesses can become operational with reduced capacity and where strict physical distancing protocols can be maintained.
4/30	Nebraska	As of May 4th , Elective surgeries can resume as long as hospitals and healthcare facilities meet requirements for available bed capacity and have adequate supplies of personal protective equipment. Currently the state has no stay-at-home order in place.
4/30	Nevada	April 28th: - Gov. Steve Sisolak said in a press conference on April 21 that there is no firm date when businesses will be allowed to reopen.
4/30	New Hampshire	April 21st: Gov. Chris Sununu said in a press conference that he’s leaning toward extending the state’s stay-at-home order past May 4. As of April 28 th , details are still pending.
4/30	New Jersey	April 28th: The state’s stay-at-home order is in place indefinitely.
4/30	New Mexico	April 28th: Not reopening yet. On Wednesday, Gov. Michelle Lujan Grisham extended the state’s stay-at-home order to May 15.
4/30	New York	April 28th: Gov. Andrew Cuomo extended the stay-at-home order until May 15, however he said in a press conference Monday that he will extend the “NY PAUSE” initiative in many parts of the state. Some hospitals may resume elective outpatient procedures, provided they maintain adequate bed capacity for the COVID-19 response. Only hospitals in counties with fewer than 10 new hospitalizations of COVID-19 patients in 10 days will be allowed to resume these surgeries.
4/30	North Carolina	April 28th: - Gov. Roy Cooper extended the stay-at-home order until May 8 and said non-

		essential businesses are to remain closed. Hospitals in North Carolina are beginning to reschedule surgeries and other procedures they began postponing in March. Duke Health, UNC Health and Charlotte-based Atrium Health began expanding the number and type of services they provide on Monday, while Novant Health and WakeMed say they'll resume some non-urgent surgeries and procedures next week.
4/30	North Dakota	No stay-at-home order in place for this state.
4/30	Ohio	April 28th: The state's stay-at-home order will expire May 1. Gov. Mike DeWine announced that on May 1, health procedures that do not require an overnight stay in the hospital may resume as well as dental and veterinary services. On Monday, May 4, manufacturing, distribution, construction and office work can resume with increased distancing and other health measures. On May 12, retail and other services may resume. Besides that, the stay-at-home order remains in place and gatherings are still limited to fewer than 10 people. strict mask requirement.
4/30	Oklahoma	April 28th: Gov. Kevin Skitt began reopening the state with restrictions lifting on barber shops, nail salons, spas, elective surgeries and state parks on April 24. Movie theaters, gyms and restaurants will be allowed to reopen May 1. April 24th: Gov. Kevin Stitt will allow any procedure for conditions that are not life-threatening — and which would have the potential for increasing disease or death if not provided — to be performed.
4/30	Oregon	April 28th: Gov. Kate Brown announced April 20 that her office would finalize a reopening plan the week of May 4. Details are pending. As of May 1st, hospitals and other healthcare facilities meeting certain requirements for COVID-19 safety and preparedness will be able to resume nonurgent procedures.
4/30	Pennsylvania	April 28th: Gov. Tom Wolf announced a phased reopening set to begin on May 8. As of April 27th, hospitals may begin performing elective surgeries and procedures if the hospital is able to do so without jeopardizing the safety of patients and staff or the hospital's ability to respond to the COVID19 pandemic.

4/30	Rhode Island	April 28th: Not reopening yet .Gov. Gina Raimondo announced in a press conference April 21 the stay-at-home order would be extended to May 8.
4/30	South Carolina	April 30th: State of emergency order in effect through April 27th. April 20th: Retailers selling furniture, clothing, sporting goods, books, and flowers, in addition to department stores and flea markets, are allowed to reopen at no more than 20% capacity with social distancing protocols. Beaches are permitted to reopen subject to local and county government approval.
4/30	South Dakota	As of May 31st, healthcare providers will be allowed to begin performing nonessential, elective surgeries, which they have been asked to postpone to preserve personal protective equipment. Currently there is stay-at-home order in place.
4/30	Tennessee	April 28th: Gov. Bill Lee said the state’s stay-at-home order would expire on April 30. Governor gave the green light for hospitals to resume “appropriate elective medical procedures” on Friday, May 1st. Lee said the first wave of approved procedures include routine screenings and joint replacements.
4/30	Texas	April 28th: The state’s stay-at-home order will end April 30, however on April 24, some nonessential businesses could open for “to-go” services and parks and beaches opened with restrictions. On May 1, the state will enter Phase 1, meaning retail stores, restaurants, movie theaters, malls and museums and libraries will be allowed to operate at 25% capacity. However, in rural counties with few cases, businesses can operate at 50% capacity. The target date for Phase 2 is May 18. April 22nd: Gov. Greg Abbott loosened restrictions on elective surgeries in the state, allowing facilities to perform them if they can do so without depleting hospital capacity of personal protective equipment supply needed to combat the COVID-19 pandemic.

4/30	Utah	As of April 22nd, the state allowed hospitals to begin performing some elective procedures in accordance with guidelines established in consultation with the Utah Hospital Association, Utah Medical Association, Utah Dental Association and other medical providers. No Executive order – shelter-in-place is voluntary.
4/30	Vermont	April 30th: “Stay Home, Stay Safe” order extended through May 15th. April 20th: Retailers can open for curbside pick-up and delivery services. Outdoor work & construction in unoccupied buildings can resume with crews of no more than two. As of May 15th, the state's healthcare providers will be allowed to return to performing nonessential or elective procedures.
4/30	Virginia	April 29th: Gov. Ralph Northam announced that non-emergency elective surgeries and other procedures (nonessential medical procedures) could resume Friday, (May 1st) - elective surgeries and dental checkups. Pending - whether to extend order to close nonessential businesses past May 8, when the current order expires.
4/30	Washington	April 28th: Gov. Jay Inslee released a plan to reopen businesses no earlier than May 4 on contingencies of a slowing of the spread of the virus. As of Monday, May 18th, healthcare providers in the state can begin performing elective procedures once the state's order banning these procedures expires.
4/30	Washington D.C.	April 28th: - Mayor Muriel Bowser announced the city's stay-at-home order was extended through May 15. On March 17, DC Health issued recommendations on limitations of elective and non-urgent medical and dental procedures. The order states that, “in addition to halting all hospital elective procedures, the District of Columbia Department of Health (DC Health) is recommending that ALL elective medical procedures, non-urgent hospital and outpatient visits, and non-urgent dental procedures be postponed to preserve health care capacity as our community mitigation strategies work to flatten the epidemic curve.”

4/30	West Virginia	April 30th: No timetable set for lifting restrictions. As of April 28th: healthcare providers that have applied to the state's Office of Health Facility Licensure and Certification and received approval may resume elective surgeries. West Virginia's dentists can go back to work 4/30/20.
4/30	Wisconsin	April 29th: In addition to essential businesses and operations, healthcare and public health operations, human services operations, essential infrastructure, essential governmental functions will continue to operate. April 28th: Gov. Tony Evers announced the state's stay-at-home order was extended to May 26.
4/30	Wyoming	April 28th: The state does not have a stay-at-home order. Effective May 1 , the state will allow gyms, barber shops, hair salons and other personal care services to reopen under specific operating conditions designed to minimize public health risk from COVID-19. Other parts of the phased approach involve easing restrictions on day cares and issuing guidance to hospitals allowing them to resume elective surgeries.